Roots of the Valley Collection

The Roots of the Valley Collection is a collective work of women artisans from the Vale Jequitinhonha in Minas Gerais developed by Casa Bonita, by Lufe Gomes, a Brazilian influencer whose LifebyLufe channel presents the many ways Brazilians live and not only their decoration projects, and Lucas Lassen, for 25 years a scholar and retailer in the Brazilian handicraft and folk art market.

Exploring the creativity of the artisans, rescuing the culture, roots, and ancestral knowledge, objects of affective memories, encouraging innovation in balance with tradition. All the pieces are signed.

The collection starts with pure, matte, rustic clay and goes through a more refined finish with the traditional pottery technique until it reaches more modern paintings that show the way is always open to new ideas. In its second edition, the today's collection counts with the participation of several men, who traditionally did not work in clay making and stayed away from home for months in search of alternative jobs.
